Hst 479: Alcohol in the Americas

Arch Dalrymple III Department of History

This course examines how alcohol has influenced the history of the Western Hemisphere. It studies the production, consumption, and the social lives of spirits across a broad swath of North and South America. In the process, it connects the often-separated histories of the United States, Latin America, and the Caribbean.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Hst 479

Subject Areas

- History, General

Related Areas

- American History United States
- Asian History
- European History
- History and Philosophy of Science and Technology
- History, Other

The University of Mississippi is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award certificates and baccalaureate, master's, specialist, and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, call 404-679-4500, or visit online at www.sacscoc.org for questions about the accreditation.