

CJ 622: Seminar in Courts & Sentencing Criminal Justice & Legal Studies

Overview of theory and research on courts and sentencing policies in criminal justice, including a review of the purpose, nature, and structure of courts and impacts of policy. Seminar topics may include research on charging, plea bargaining, bail decisions, juries, and sentencing decisions.

Instruction Type(s)

• Seminar: Seminar for CJ 622

• Seminar: Web-based Seminar for CJ 622 • Seminar: Compressed Video for CJ 622

Subject Areas

• Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement Administration

Related Areas

- Corrections
- Criminal Justice/Police Science
- Criminal Justice/Safety Studies
- Criminalistics and Criminal Science
- Forensic Science and Technology
- Juvenile Corrections

