SRA 262: Introduction to Therapeutic Recreation

A focus on the provision of inclusive recreation services for persons with disabilities, with emphasis placed on the content areas of attitude, legislation, programming, accessibility/usability, and the characteristics and implications of varied disabling conditions. Exploration of history, legislation, and philosophical development of therapeutic recreation; study of etiology, needs and characteristics of disabilities; analysis of principles, practices and procedures, applicable for special populations in diverse settings.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
- SRA majors only or by instructor approval.

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for SRA 262
- Lecture: Correspondence for SRA 262
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for SRA 262

Subject Areas
- Parks, Recreation and Leisure Facilities Management
- Parks, Recreation, Leisure and Fitness Studies, Other