SW 438: Social Work Practice IV

Social Work

Fourth in the series of four practice courses. Utilization of the generalist problem-solving model for social work with organizations and communities, with attention to achieving social justice for oppressed populations. Attention to ethical practice.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- SW 335: Social Work Practice I (Minimum grade: C)
- SW 322: Human Behav and the Soc Environment II (Minimum grade: C)
- SW 340: Social Work Research (Minimum grade: C)
- Enrollment restricted to Social Work Majors

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for SW 438
- Lecture: Compressed Video for SW 438
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for SW 438

Subject Areas

- Social Work
- Community Organization and Advocacy

Related Areas

- Social Work, Other