MIS 330: Business Application Programming II
Management Information Systems

Advanced study of object-oriented design and programming for business applications. Topics to be covered include classes and objects, applets, containers, multithreading, IO streams and sockets, packages, and scripts.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
• MIS 280: Business Application Programming I

Instruction Type(s)
• Lecture: Lecture for MIS 330
• Lecture: Compressed Video for MIS 330

Subject Areas
• Computer Programming/Programmer, General
• Computer Programming Special Applications