Econ 609: Mathematics for Economists

Economics

Students learn mathematical techniques for use in business and economics, methodology for investigation of empirical problems arising in business and economics.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)
- Seminar: Seminar for Econ 609

Subject Areas
- Economics, General

Related Areas
- Applied Economics
- Development Economics and International Development
- Econometrics and Quantitative Economics
- Economics, Other
- International Economics