Econ 621: Theory of International Trade

Theory of international trade, theories of comparative advantage, and effects of tariffs and other trade policies. Recent theories of trade in the presence of scale economics and/or imperfect competition.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
- Econ 605 or Econ 609

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Econ 621

Subject Areas
- International Economics

Related Areas
- Applied Economics
- Development Economics and International Development
- Econometrics and Quantitative Economics
- Economics, General
- Economics, Other