Phil 310: Socrates & Sophistry
Philosophy & Religion
The intellectual ferment surrounding the development of philosophy in fifth century Athens; its origins and consequences in literature and politics. Readings focus on Socrates; drama, early philosophical texts, the Sophists and Plato.
3 Credits

Cross-listed Courses
- Clc 310: Socrates and Sophistry

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Phil 310

Subject Areas
- Philosophy

Related Areas
- Applied and Professional Ethics
- Ethics
- Logic