Anth 317: Indians on the Southern Frontier
Sociology & Anthropology

Examines the place of Native Americans in the South during the frontier era (A.D. 1500-1840), focusing on the changes in Native American life once they became incorporated into the larger world as a result of European colonization.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 317

Subject Areas
- Anthropology

Related Areas
- Physical and Biological Anthropology