Anth 413: Public Archaeology: Theory and Method

Sociology & Anthropology

This course provides theoretical and practical experience in public archaeology in the United States. Topics covered include the history and implementation of legislation affecting cultural resources, and a variety of field and lab methods used by current practitioners.

4 Credits

Prerequisites
• Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)
• Lecture/Lab: Lecture/Lab for Anth 413

Course Fee(s)
Sociology 1
• $20.00

Subject Areas
• Anthropology

Related Areas
• Physical and Biological Anthropology