Anth 415: Historical Archaeology
Sociology & Anthropology
The course will demonstrate how researchers work with not only archaeological data but also historical documents, oral histories, and ethnographies in order to interpret the recent past. Students will get a comprehensive survey of methods, theories, and discoveries in historical archaeology.

3 Credits
Prerequisites
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 415

Subject Areas
- Anthropology

Related Areas
- Physical and Biological Anthropology