Anth 626: Archaeology of Maya Civilization
Sociology & Anthropology
Students will explore the world of the ancient Maya in Mexico, Guatemala, and Belize through archaeology. The course covers architecture, politics and economy, art, hieroglyphs, and aspects of peoples’ everyday lives from fashion to food, festivals, and funerals.
3 Credits
Instruction Type(s)
- Seminar: Seminar for Anth 626
Subject Areas
- Sociology