Overview

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction offers the Bachelor of Arts in Education (B.A.E.) degree in the areas of elementary education, secondary education (English, mathematics, science, and social studies), and special education.

At the graduate level, the dept offers the Master of Education (M.Ed.) and Educational Specialist (Ed.S.), with emphases in elementary education, secondary education, literacy, and special education, the Master of Arts (M.A.) (Teacher Corps option), the Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) in elementary education, and the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in secondary education.

Other Information

All professional education courses (with the exception of Edrd 355, Edci 351, and Edci 352) require admission to Phase II.

Students registered in schools of the university other than the School of Education should take particular care to inquire about certification requirements.

Candidates who are conditionally admitted or who elect to enroll as nondegree-seeking students may take only 9 hours and are NOT eligible for financial aid.
