Csci 426: System Security
COMPUTER & INFORMATION SCIENCE

This course covers the fundamentals of computer security with an emphasis on computer systems security. Areas covered include operating system security mechanisms, access control models, and other relevant topics.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Csci 325: Foundations of Computer Security (Minimum grade: C-)

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Csci 426

Subject Areas

- Computer Science