

Mus 213: Intermediate Keyboard Musicianship I

The development of intermediate technical fluency at the keyboard; including repertoire, harmonization of simple melodies, sightreading, transposition, and improvisation.

All music performance, except class instruction, shall be taught as one hour of private instruction per week. Students may register for only one performance course in an area per semester, that is, only one piano course, or only one voice course, etc. When necessary, music performance courses may be repeated once for credit. The jury shall serve as the final examination for every music performance course. Advancement to the next performance course requires jury recommendation. When offered in a summer term, credit is reduced by half. Music performance courses numbered 100 (Voic 100, Flt 100, etc.) cannot be used to satisfy music performance requirements for a major or minor in music.

Prerequisites for this course may also be satisfied by consent of instructor.
