

Soc 310: Sociology of Disability SOCIOLOGY & ANTHROPOLOGY

This course focuses on disability by examining its relationship to theories of race, science, and laws concerning disability using two cases studies disability in the United States and in Germany during the 20th century.

Instruction Type(s)

• Lecture: Lecture for Soc 310

Subject Areas

Sociology

about the accreditation.