

His 385: History of Islam in Africa

ARCH DALRYMPLE III DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

This course will explore the history of Islam in Africa from the seventh century through the twentieth century. The primary focus will be on West and East Africa. Topics will include Muslim minorities in non-Muslim societies, Islam and slavery, women in Muslim societies, Jihad movements in Africa, Muslim responses to nineteenth century European expansion, Islam and colonialism and Islam and post-colonial developments.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Cross-listed Courses

- Aas 394: History of Islam in Africa

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for His 385

Subject Areas

- History, General

Related Areas

- American History United States
- Asian History
- European History
- History and Philosophy of Science and Technology
- History, Other

