

Phcy 607: Practice Law Application

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive review of pharmacy law. Students will be introduced to the federal and state laws and regulations that affect the practice of pharmacy, the regulatory bodies that enforce these laws and regulations, the specific procedures necessary to comply with these laws and regulations, and the implications for violating them. Additionally, students will be introduced to laws governing business operations and civil liability, and current legal issues in pharmacy practice. Throughout the course, we will discuss actual cases and ethical decision-making situations to demonstrate the ways in which pharmacists, pharmacies, retail chains, and pharmaceutical companies have violated the law, and the implications for those violations.
