

SW 575: Psychosocial Aspects of Aging SOCIAL WORK

Introduction to gerontology with a foundation in biological, psychosocial, and behavioral aspects of aging; emphasis on current research and experience working with older adults.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

• Prerequiste: Junior standing (60 hr).

Cross-listed Courses

• Psy 575: Psychosocial Aspects of Aging

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for SW 575
- Lecture: Compressed Video for SW 575
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for SW 575
- Lecture: WEB Washington Internship for SW 575

Subject Areas

- Social Work
- Social Work, Other