

GB 310: Information Technology in Business

This course prepares students to function effectively in the modern information-driven business environment. Topics covered include ways in which information technology can be used to increase team and company productivity, the impact of information technology-based systems on organizational competitiveness, and the common tools used to improve individual effectiveness in technology-enabled professional settings. 3 Credits

Prerequisites

• Pre-Requisite: Successful Completion of 54 Hours.

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for GB 310
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for GB 310

Subject Areas

Management Information Systems, General

Related Areas

Management Information Systems and Services, Other

The University of Mississippi is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award certificates and baccalaureate, master's, specialist, and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, call 404-679-4500, or visit online at www.sacscoc.org for questions about the accreditation.

