

M.S. in Pharmaceutical Sciences

Description

The M.S. in pharmaceutical sciences can be completed with an emphasis in environmental toxicology, medicinal chemistry, pharmaceuticals, pharmacology, pharmacognosy, or pharmacy administration.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 31

Course Requirements

Requirements for each emphasis area are given in the respective program description sections. Each emphasis area requires students to complete a minimum of 24 semester hours of course work and 6 hours of thesis.

Specializations

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

BIOMOLECULAR SCIENCES

- Emphasis - Environmental Toxicology
- Emphasis - Medicinal Chemistry

PHARMACEUTICS & DRUG DELIVERY

- Emphasis - Pharmaceutics

BIOMOLECULAR SCIENCES

- Emphasis - Pharmacognosy
- Emphasis - Pharmacology

PHARMACY ADMINISTRATION

- Emphasis - Pharmacy Administration

