

Hon 350: Intro to American Law and Reasoning

SALLY MCDONNELL BARKSDALE HONORS COLLEGE

This course is intended to provide a broad introduction to American law and legal reasoning. The goals of the course are twofold. First, the student will gain an understanding of the role of law and legal institutions in American society. Second, the student will gain experience in legal reasoning by using primary source materials - e.g., court cases, statutes, etc. - to understand how actual lawyers and judges make and use law.

Junior standing and a 3.60 GPA required to take this course.
