

GB 330: Essentials of Finance MANAGEMENT

Essentials of Finance is a survey of finance covering a broad range of finance topics, appropriate for a general business major. While the course is designed to cover managerial finance, attention will be paid to relating corporate topics to personal financial decisions that everyone will be exposed to at some point during their lives.

GB 330 may not be used as a 300+ business elective.

Students may take either GB 330 or Fin 331, but not both for credit toward a degree.
