B.A. in Classics Description

The B.A. in classics is an interdisciplinary degree involving the study of ancient Greek and Latin, literature in translation, history, classical archaeology, and art history.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 120

General Education Requirements

See the 'General Education/Core Curriculum' for the School of Liberal Arts.

Course Requirements

A major in classics for the B.A. degree consists of 30 semester hours of Department of Classics courses. Students complete an emphasis in classical civilization or an emphasis in ancient Greek or Latin.

Other Academic Requirements

A minimum grade of C is required for all courses counting toward the major

Emphasis - Greek Description

For students contemplating graduate study in classics, the emphasis in ancient Greek will help prepare them for advanced study.

Course Requirements

The BA in classics with an emphasis in Greek requires 30 credit hours of Department of Classics courses, with two options: 1) a minimum of 24 hours of Greek language; or 2) 18 hours of Greek and 6 hours of Latin. If the second option is chosen, the remaining six hours of classics courses must be at the 300-level or higher.

Other Academic Requirements

Students must achieve a grade of C or better in all course work counted for the major in classics with an emphasis in Greek.

Degree Requirements

The academic regulations for this degree program, as entered in the University of Mississippi Catalog, are in effect for the current or selected academic year and semester. The University of Mississippi reserves the right to 1) change or withdraw courses; 2) change rules for registration, instruction, and graduation; and 3) change other regulations affecting the student body at any time.
