

Clc 341: Alexander the Great

CLASSICS

This course is an examination of the rise of Macedonia under Philip, the accession of Alexander and Alexander's conquest of the Persian Empire. Topics discussed include Macedonia's domination of Greece, Greek opposition, the destruction of Olynthus and modern interpretations of Philip and Alexander.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Cross-listed Courses

- Hst 303: Alexander the Great

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Clc 341

Subject Areas

- History, Other
- Classical, Ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern Studies

