

Hon 420: Honors Experiential Learning

SALLY MCDONNELL BARKSDALE HONORS COLLEGE

Students work in teams to understand and respond to problems or opportunities in regional, national, or international communities. Topics vary. The course combines significant field experience with robust academic exploration of contexts and methodologies for response.

May be repeated for credit if topic is different. Open to all honors students and to other students with at least a 3.0 GPA on a space-available basis.
