

CJ 622: Seminar in Courts & Sentencing

Legal Studies

Overview of theory and research on courts and sentencing policies in criminal justice, including a review of the purpose, nature, and structure of courts and impacts of policy. Seminar topics may include research on charging, plea bargaining, bail decisions, juries, and sentencing decisions.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Seminar: Seminar for CJ 622

Subject Areas

- Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement Administration

Related Areas

- Corrections
- Criminal Justice/Police Science
- Criminal Justice/Safety Studies
- Criminalistics and Criminal Science
- Forensic Science and Technology
- Juvenile Corrections

