

Coun 790: Doctoral Teaching Internship in Coun. Ed Leadership & Counselor Education

This course provides the opportunity for counselor education doctoral students to apply knowledge about and develop skills in teaching. Pedagogy and relevant instructional methods are examined. Students in this Ph.D. program are required to do three internship experiences in teaching. These experiences are distributed over three semesters. They are scaffolded and involve increasing levels of responsibility for the delivery of instruction, the assessment of student learning, and the design of courses (p. 24 handbook). A total of 3 credit hours in Coun 790: Doctoral Internship in Counselor Education is required.
