

Hst 460: Public History

Arch Dalrymple III Department of History

This course will introduce students to the field, theory, and practice of public history. It explores history and memory, how to communicate with different publics, controversies in the field, new media and digital humanities, historic preservation and cultural-resources management, and museum work.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Hst 460

Subject Areas

- History, General

Related Areas

- American History United States
- Asian History
- European History
- History and Philosophy of Science and Technology
- History, Other

