

Psy 735: Seminar on College Teaching

Psychology

Students will consider and develop effective teaching strategies and skills for academic careers in higher education. Topics include teaching philosophies, text selection, syllabus development, instructional technologies, proper organization and use of class time, exam construction, and grading models.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Seminar: Seminar for Psy 735

Subject Areas

- Psychology, General

