

Law 766: Clinics: Elder Law School of Law

Students prepare wills, health care directives, and powers of attorney for elderly clients; students advise clients on Medicaid, Medicare, nursing home law, consumer law, guardianship/conservatorship, and elder abuse issues; and students represent clients in administrative hearings and in court.

Instruction Type(s)

• Clinical Ins: Clinical Instruction for Law 766

Subject Areas

• Law (LL.B., J.D.)

Related Areas

• Law and Legal Studies, Other

