

Aas 326: African American History since 1865 African American Studies Program

This course is a survey of the history of black Americans from the Emancipation Proclamation to the present, emphasizing the role of black leaders, the struggle against oppression, and the evolution of race relations.

Prerequisites

• Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Cross-listed Courses

• Hst 415: African American History since 1865

Subject Areas

- African-American/Black Studies
- American History United States or visit online at www.sacscoc.org for

Monday, July 21, 2025 at 6:37:34 pm

