

Anth 319: Environmental History of the South

Sociology & Anthropology

Explores the changes in the Southern environment from the prehistoric era to the modern era, focusing on issues of human/environment interaction, changing patterns of land use, and the subsequent changes in the environment.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 319

Subject Areas

- Anthropology

Related Areas

- Physical and Biological Anthropology

