

Edci 606: Comp. Wellness Physical Activity Ele Cla

Teacher Education

This course will provide students with an advanced study and application of pedagogy in relation to wellness and physical activity integration through multiple lenses. These lenses will enable students to effectively lead, create, and implement wellness and physical integration on a broader scale that encompasses the whole school environment. Lectures, student presentations, research-based discussions on current issues in the field, grant research, experiential lesson development inclusive of practical methodologies, and peer and self- assessment of integrative teaching will all be components of this course.
