

CJ 636: Critical Infrastructure Security Criminal Justice & Legal Studies

Review of U.S. counterterrorism policies and practices for the security of U.S. major critical infrastructures, including transportation and border security. 3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Seminar: Seminar for CJ 636
- Seminar: Masters in Criminal Justice Exec Cohort
- Seminar: Compressed Video for CJ 636
- Seminar: Web-based Seminar for CJ 636

Subject Areas

• Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement Administration

Related Areas

- Corrections
- Criminal Justice/Police Science
- Criminal Justice/Safety Studies
- Criminalistics and Criminal Science
- Forensic Science and Technology
- Juvenile Corrections