

Hst 408: US - World War II to Watergate, 1945-74 Arch Dalrymple III Department of History

This course will traverse the nation and world made and remade from the late 1940s through the early 1970s. It is an era filled with myth and misremembrance today, but it is also an era teeming with contemporary significance. We live along the fault lines of World War II to Watergate.
