

Minor - Museum Studies

• Minor - Museum Studies

Minor - Museum Studies Description

The minor in museum studies is an interdisciplinary course of study introducing students to museum history and practice and affording the opportunity to explore career paths in museums, public history, and public humanities.

Course Requirements

The interdisciplinary museum studies minor consists of 18 credit hours, including Muse 201 or AH 412, 12 credit hours of approved electives chosen from the list below, and 3 credit hours of internship approved by the director. At least 6 credit hours must be outside of the student's major discipline(s). The same course may not satisfy requirements for both a major and a minor. Students who complete relevant internship, study abroad, or special topics courses must consult with the director prior to enrollment in the course.

Approved Electives

- AH 412. History of Museums
- Art 414. Exhibition Design
- Anth 413. Public Archaeology
- Clc 360. Archaeological and Museum Ethics
- Anth/Clc 375. Digital Archaeology
- Clc 415. Studying Ancient Artifacts
- Hst 460. Public History
- Hst 461. History on Location
- Hst 465. Digital History
- Muse 199. Introductory Topics in Museum Studies
- Muse 201. Introduction to Museum Practice
- Muse 301. Fundraising for Museums
- Muse 395. Topics in Museum Studies
- Muse 398. Topics in Museum Studies Abroad
- S St 556. Heritage Tourism in the South

Internship Courses

- Muse 401. Internship/Practicum in Museum Studies
- AH 308. Art History Internship
- Clc 401. Internship in Classics
- Hst 493. Undergraduate History Internship

Other Academic Requirements

A minimum grade of C is required for all courses that apply to the minor.

