Emphasis - Musical Theatre Description

The emphasis in musical theatre provides comprehensive training in vocal, dance, and performance styles, as well as specialized actor training in all the major musical theatre styles. In addition to rigorous classroom work--in their field of study as well as in theory, history, literature, craft skills, directing, and business and employment practices--main-stage musical productions provide performance opportunities that prepare students for graduate study or professional employment. Students audition for entrance into the musical theatre program at the end of their freshman year.
