

MHA 606: Quantitative Methods in Health Care

School of Business Administration

An examination of roles of statistical/mathematical/computer techniques in the evaluation of health care decision-making. The process will entail problem identification and development of research questions/hypotheses, research design and methodology, statistical analysis and interpretations. Ethical and compliance considerations specific to health care will be discussed and incorporated into decision-making.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for MHA 606
- Lecture: WEB PMBA for MHA 606
- Lecture: Online Program for MHA 606

Subject Areas

- Health/Health Care Administration/Management

