

Econ 583: Labor Relations

Economics

An advanced course analyzing the evolution and impact of labor law in the United States. The growth of unions, the Railway Labor Act, the Norris-LaGuardia Act, and Fair Employment Law are emphasized using the case approach.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Mgmt 581: Collective Bargaining
- Senior standing required.

Cross-listed Courses

- Mgmt 583: Labor Relations

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Econ 583

Subject Areas

- Applied Economics
- Labor Studies

