

Pol 736: International Security Law and Policy Political Science

This course explores the complexities of the international law of conflict management and the legal structure for resolving international disputes. 3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

• Seminar: Seminar for Pol 736

Subject Areas

- Political Science and Government, General
- International Relations and Affairs

