

M.S. in Hospitality Management

Description

The goal of the University of Mississippi online Master of Science program in hospitality management, a nonthesis professional degree program, is to provide students an opportunity to contribute to the advancement of knowledge in the field of study and the profession in order to develop more effective research and operational practices, and to qualify for leadership positions in teaching, research, hospitality management, and administration.

General Education Requirements

The following 10 courses (30 credit hours) are required for a student to successfully complete the online hospitality management graduate program.

Administration and Research Core

9 hours

NHM 617 - Advanced Food
Service Management

3 hours

NHM 525 - Research I
Principles

3 hours

NHM 526 - Statistics I in NHM

3 hours

Course Requirements

Hospitality Management Emphasis Courses

21 hours

NHM 615 - Advanced Financial
Management in Hospitality

3 hours

NHM 624 - Advanced
Marketing Hospitality Industry

3 hours

NHM 627 - Trends & Topics
Hospitality Management

3 hours

NHM 628 - Organizational
Behavior in Hospitality

3 hours

NHM 662 - Advanced Lodging

3 hours

NHM 671 - Advanced Service
Quality Management

3 hours

NHM 676 - Adv. Hospitality
Information Technology

3 hours

Other Academic Requirements

Students must complete a final portfolio for degree completion.

