

CEL 102: From Service to Solutions

University Studies

CEL 102 "From Service to Solutions" will allow first-year students to explore issues and causes in which they can make a difference through service and learning. Students will intentionally engage in critical thinking about identity, learn about themselves and others, and gain a deeper understanding of the LOU community. The semester will focus on specific themes encouraging leadership and student development through a community engagement framework. Note: Students must complete CEL 101 before enrolling in CEL 102.
