

Cert. in Reform & Athletics Acad Success

Description

This program would teach students what working in athletics academic advising and support entails along with introducing the technical elements of student-athlete academic eligibility. The program would equip students with an understanding of academic reform in the NCAA to inform their understanding of the current landscape regarding advising student-athletes. This program would be geared towards students with an interest in working in athletics academic advising and academic support. It may also serve as an emphasis option in higher education, among other options.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 12

Course Requirements

The graduate certificate in Reform & Athletics Academic Success would consist of the following courses (12 hours):

- SAS 600 - NCAA Governance (3 hours)
- SAS 604 - Academic Advising, Support in Athletics (3 hours)
- SAS 605 - Eligibility, PTD and Certification (3 hours)
- SAS 606 - Academic Reform and APP (3 hours)

