

Liba 101: Intro. to Occupational/Physical Therapy College of Liberal Arts

Group study of the roles and responsibilities of allied health professionals in providing care for special populations; review of legal and ethical considerations; supervised observation and hands-on experience as required for application to professional programs. Meets at the North Mississippi Regional Center.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

• Internship: Internship for Liba 101

Subject Areas

- Occupational Therapy/Therapist
- Physical Therapy/Therapist

Related Areas

• Therapeutic Recreation/Recreational Therapy

