

PPL 387: Education Policy Public Policy Leadership

This course explores the debates regarding the problems facing pre-K-12 education in the U.S., their causes, and possible solutions. It focuses on the interaction of policy and practice, especially regarding a wide range of reform ideas, analyzes a number of reforms, and discusses how key institutions and actors shape the American pre-K-12 education system.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

• PPL 101: Foundations of Public Policy Leadership

Instruction Type(s)

• Lecture: Lecture for PPL 387

Subject Areas

• Education Policy Analysis

Related Areas

• Public Policy Analysis, General

