

CJ 690: Applied Criminal Justice Graduate Project

Criminal Justice & Legal Studies

The applied criminal justice graduate project is a degree culmination alternative to the traditional thesis. Students must develop and complete a research-informed original project under the supervision of a graduate faculty adviser. Students must complete 6 credits of CJ 690.

Z grade

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Instructor Approval Required

Instruction Type(s)

- Practicum: Practicum for CJ 690

Subject Areas

- Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement Administration

Related Areas

- Corrections
- Criminal Justice/Police Science
- Criminal Justice/Safety Studies
- Criminalistics and Criminal Science
- Forensic Science and Technology
- Juvenile Corrections

