Minor - Journalism Description

A minor in journalism is designed to prepare you to be an active participant in a changing media world. You will develop critical journalistic and integrated marketing abilities necessary for careers that require strong communications skills.

The minor is not valid for those pursuing a major in journalism or integrated marketing communications.

Course Requirements

A MINOR IN JOURNALISM consists of 18 credit hours in the following required courses: Jour 101, either Jour 102 or IMC 104, and four additional journalism courses, three of which must be at the 300 level or above. Grades lower than C in journalism courses will not be counted toward the journalism minor.
