Minor - Data Science

Minor - Data Science

Description

A minor in data science will provide students with practical knowledge of methods and techniques used for data collection, storage, and analysis. Students will gain essential programming skills to support a wide range of data science applications.

Course Requirements

A minor in data science consists of Csci 256, 343, 443, 475 and six additional hours selected from Csci 345, 356, 444, 492, 517, and 543.