

G St 423: Black Women's Enterprise & Activism Sarah Isom Ctr for Women&Gender Studies

This class broadens offerings in U.S., African-American, and gender history by exploring the narrative of entrepreneurial black women and their political and social activism from the antebellum period through the 1990s.

Cross-listed Courses

- Aas 423: Black Women's Enterprise & Activism
- Hst 419: Black Women's Enterprise & Activism

Subject Areas

- American History United States
- African-American/Black Studies
- Women's Studies

